

Latin America

A coup takes place in Venezuela. Within hours OPEC has an emergency meeting, oil stocks plummet, the Bolivar experiences massive devaluation, world leaders plead for calm, and energy costs rise. Just as another oil-producing country maneuvers to capitalize on the uncertainty and the major industry players get nervous, a few businesses are able to shift their energy investments at a profit. Empowered with real-time news, these companies are planning their celebrations. Are your clients able to fiesta as well?
