

Spanish Select

Spanish Select is a diverse offering of Spanish language content from around the world. Comtex's aggregation of native language real-time newswires delivers business news and information from Latin America and Spain as well as top international stories. Spanish Select topics include breaking news, companies, people, economy, markets, import/export and fiscal policy. With a diverse offering from a variety of publishers Comtex delivers fast and comprehensive reporting.

Spanish Select is comprised of the following publishers:

Agencia EFE: A Spanish-language news agency, that has been reporting on Latin America since 1965. Based in Madrid, EFE, primarily focuses on business, immigration, education, health, sports, economy, political and entertainment news of regions and communities within Latin America. EFE delivers news, analysis and features selected from the output of 2,000 journalists reporting from more than 98 countries.

PR Newswire: A leading distributor of corporate, association, and institutional press releases to the media and the financial community throughout Latin America.

Xinhua News Agency: The state news agency of the People's Republic of China. From its bureaus around the world, Xinhua offers real-time coverage of critical worldwide political, social, economic, corporate and sports news aimed at an international audience. A translated subset of Spanish-language content is available in the Spanish Select CustomWire.

Statistics

Daily Story Average:

- 450-500 stories per day, Monday-Friday
- 180-200 articles per day, Saturday and Sunday

